Sun God Temple - Arasavalli

The Famous Sun God Temple situated in Arasavalli Village which is at a distance of about 1 K.M. east of Srikakulam Town District head quarters of the North Coastal Andhra Pradesh. It is one of the ancient and all among two sun God temples in our Country. According to Padmapuranam, Sage Kasyapa installed the Idol of Surya at Arasavalli for the welfare of mankind. Therefore, the Surya is of Kasayaspasa Gotra. He is also termed as planetary king. According to the 'Shalapuranam' of the temple, Lord Devendra found this temple and installed the existing idol of the sun God Commonly known as Lord suryanarayana Swamy Varu under the following circumstances.

Once Lord Devendra, ignoring the words of Dwarapalaka Nandi, attempted to force his entry for Darshan of Sri Rudrakoteswara Swamy varu at an unlimite hour when Lord sliva was along with his consort. The Dwarapalaka Nadi in the discharge of his duties kicked the Intruder, thus kicked and injured by the Devine attendent Indra fell down senseless. And in his unconscious state Indra dreamt that he would be relieved of his pain of injury in his chest caused by Nandi if he had built a temple and install an idol of the Sun God. After regaining his consciousness, he remembered what he dreamt.
